Gainesville-Alachua County Association Rings in RPAC Bucks with Horseshoe Fundraiser

Dee Edwards and Kelly Potter, who co-chair the Gainesville-Alachua County Association of Realtors® (GACAR) RPAC Fundraising Committee, put together a great fundraising event on March 21st. Over 130 people attended, including special guests like RPAC District 1 Trustee Millie Kanyar and RPCC Fundraising Subcommittee Chair Larissa Ortiz.

Attendees played horseshoes and participated in a silent auction as a way to invest in RPAC. The horseshoe competition was stiff, but everyone had fun. The first place trophy went to Bass and Cowart, while second place was snagged by Smith and Couch.

GACAR turned a $1,615 NAR fundraising grant and lots of hard work into $6,710 raised at the event. Twenty seven percent of the contributions were from new RPAC investors - a huge success.

The board put an emphasis on education during the event with RPAC informational brochures on tables and announcement breaks to emphasize the importance of investing. The local committee is thrilled to see their hard work pay off!
